

Publication	Gulf Today	Circulation	46200
Market	United Arab Emirates	Page No.	2
Section	Business	Size	20 cc

June 21, 2014

Excitement coming at this year's 'Ramadan Night Market'

DUBAI: Dubai's only night market during the holy month of Ramadan is back with exhilarating activities, offers and unique shopping opportunities. Ramadan Night Market offers a great ambiance with loads of fun, frolic and family time along with tempting offers from the retailers coming together at the market from across the globe. Organized by Sumansa Exhibitions, the night market will be held over the 11 nights of Ramadan from 17th – 27th July 2014 at Dubai's most prestigious and strategically located venue Dubai World Trade Center offering residents and tourists a great opportunity to shop for all their festival needs under one roof.

"Despite plethora of shopping options and world class malls in Dubai, Ramadan Night Market has become very popular within just 2 years of its launch, simply because it has a unique charm to itself offering visitors an extraordinary shopping as well as family bonding opportunity which you don't find elsewhere. The relaxed atmosphere, bazaar kind of feel coupled with retailers from across the world selling exquisite collectible, gifting, artifacts and varied items fascinates the visitors", said Sunil Jaiswal, CEO Sumansa Exhibitions.–PR